at Painted Prairie

Parkwood Homes is a boutique, family-owned builder, and we're incredibly excited to join the Painted Prairie community. We've been building homes for over 25 years in Maryland, and came to Colorado in 2001, when we were invited to build homes in Central Park. We've since built a reputation in Colorado for our timeless architecture and to giving new home buyers an exceptional customer experience. In fact, many of our purchasers are repeat buyers, and in Central Park, roughly 3 of 4 recent buyers come from our reputation alone. Visit our website and join our mailing list to be the first to know as we release information on pricing, floor plans, and lot locations.
